Good morning, little Ariana!
Are you ready to play?
It's the start of a magical Mommy and Ariana day!

Do the berries taste better,
or the peach, or the pear?
We'll try them together
because Ariana loves to share.

After breakfast, we'll laugh and cuddle on
the bed,

then count each tiny
toe and kiss your
sweet little head.

Ariana,
let's pick out your clothes from head to toe.

There will be so much to see in the places we'll go!

We'll stroll through our town,
past gardens and parks.

With rose petals, I'll draw both our names in a heart.

Peek-a-boo, peek-a-boo, peek-a-boo up high!

I'll swing you gently, Ariana,
with your feet toward the sky.

Now a new thing to try.
One, two, three, now say, "Whee!"

Ariana,
you'll slide
down in my lap,
held tightly
by me.

Then we'll move to a place that I like so well,

with so many loving baby stories to tell.

Let's have some downtime now
and feed bellies too.

Let's put down
our bags—
a break for me
and for you.

The world is exciting,
full of beauty to see.
Will you remember this day...
this fun outing with me?

Oh Ariana,
my hope is that you always do!
Because you showed ME a new world the first time I saw YOU!

What a day
full of sights,
sounds and things
that we love,

with more to enjoy
as the sun sets above.

We'll head toward home while we still
have good light,

then have dinner
and bath time
before saying,
"Night, night."
