Daisy, today begins a journey
into the great unknown.

Amazing, astounding adventures await you—just look how much you've grown!

We've watched you play with toys and games and puppets made of socks, and with your tiny hands,

you've built wondrous worlds
from wooden blocks.

We remember where you started,
so tiny in our arms.

We dreamed and sang soft lullabies of kingdoms, clouds, and farms.

The world is ready for you, Daisy, today and every day.

As you build the world you dream of,
we're behind you
all the way.

There may be times when the world feels large, and towering, and tall.

And you'll fear you won't be strong enough to travel through it all.

When the tower has no staircases or rope-ladders to mention, remember you hold

deep down inside,
the keys to your own inventions.

DAISY'S CASTLE

Some days you will feel ready, but you won't yet have all the tools.

Let your bold imagination
dream up your very own rules!

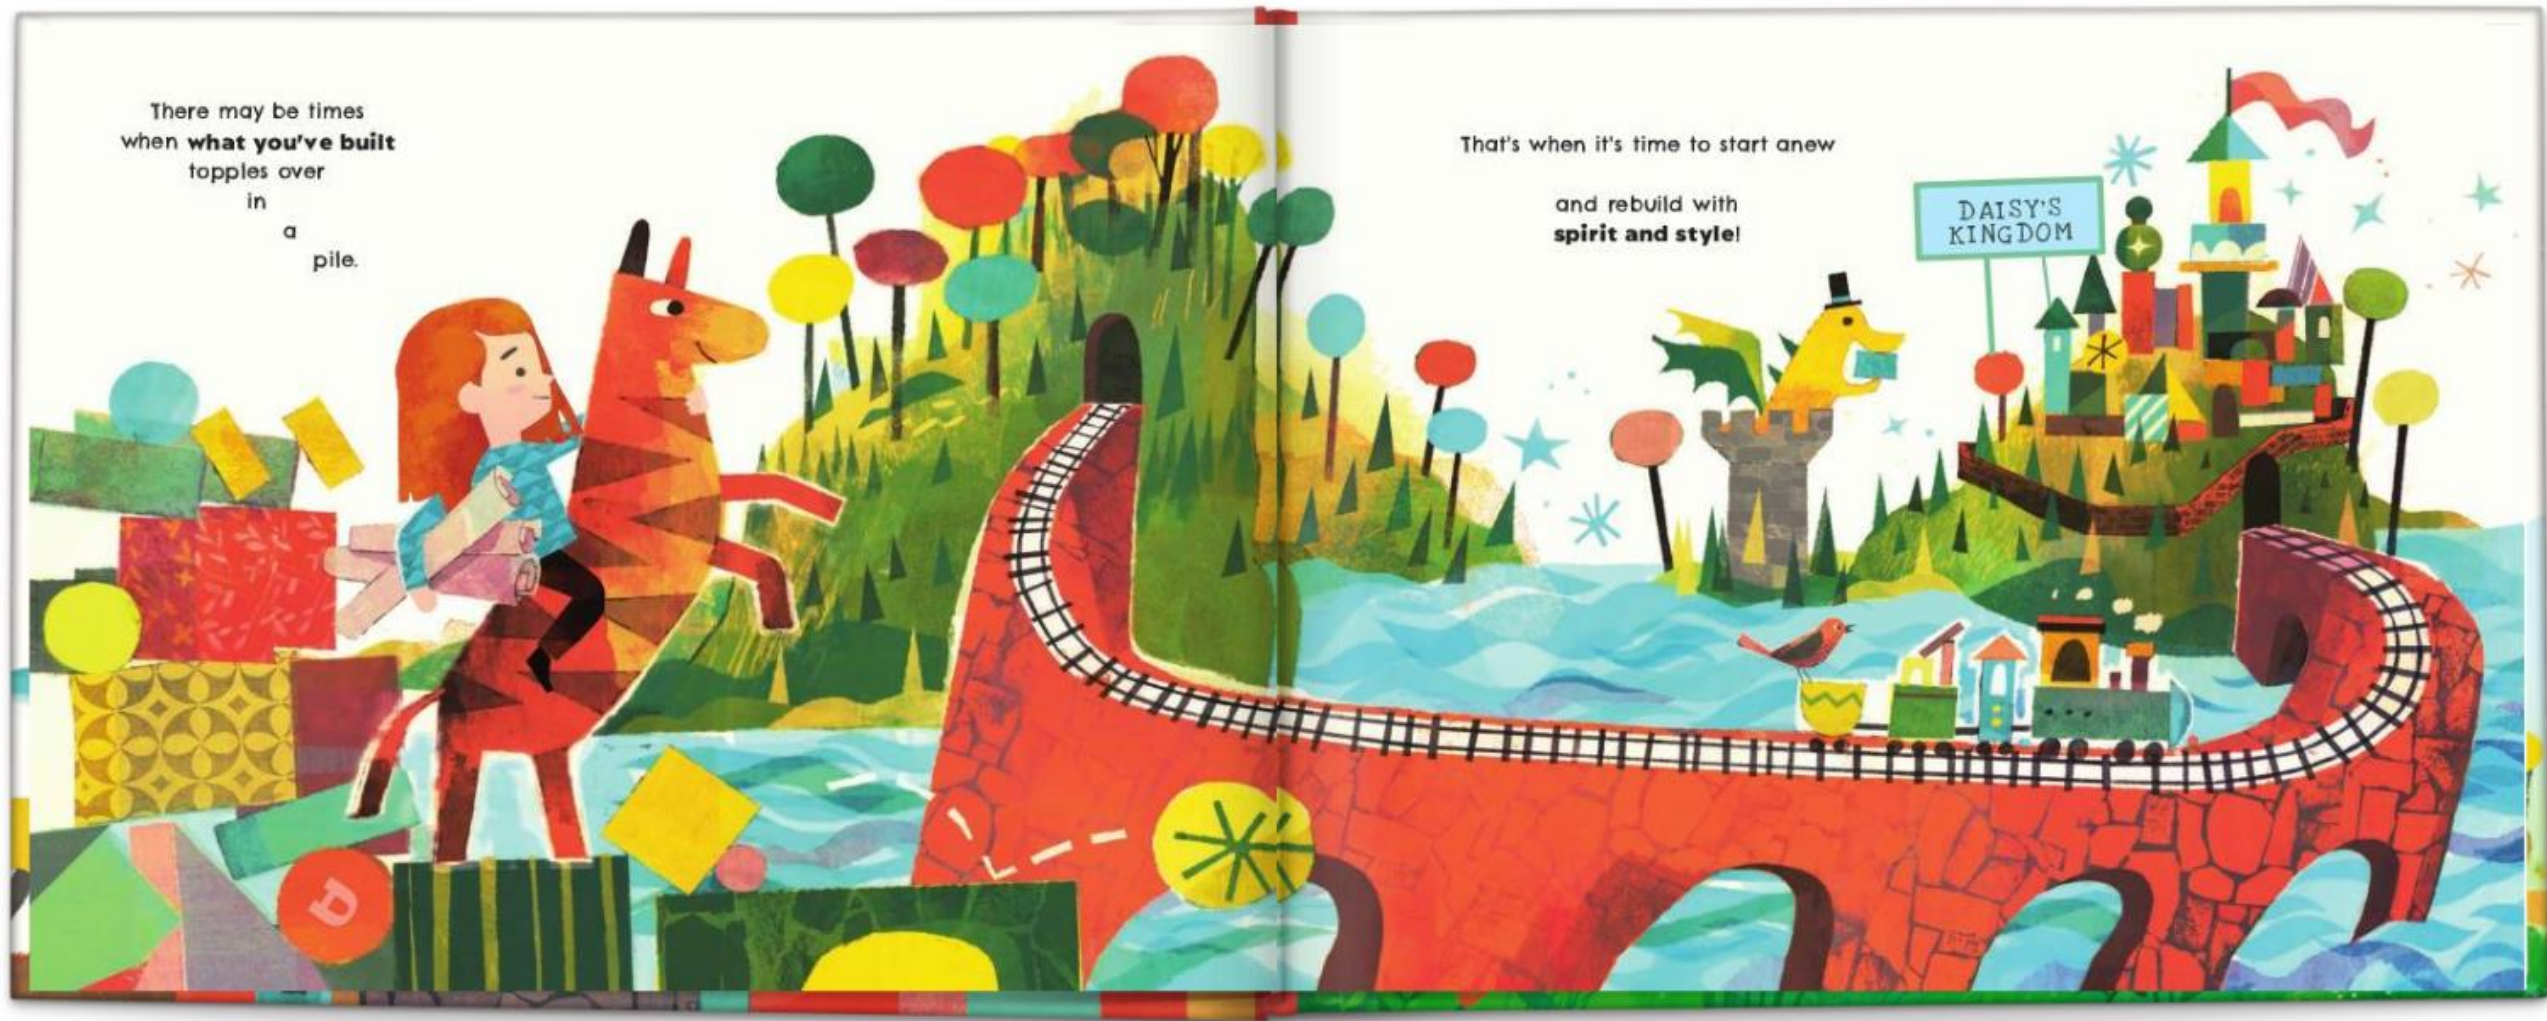

Daisy,
the world is full of
magic,
laughter,
joy,
and fun.

There are heights to reach that touch the clouds—you can reach them, every one!

There may be times
when what you've built topples over
in a
pile.

That's when it's time to start anew and rebuild with spirit and style!

There will be paths that stretch out long for miles and miles and miles, and when you just can't take another step, it's OK to rest awhile.

When the task is tough and you just can't seem to stay inside the lines,

allow your path to
curve and squiggle.

Daisy, let your uniqueness shine!

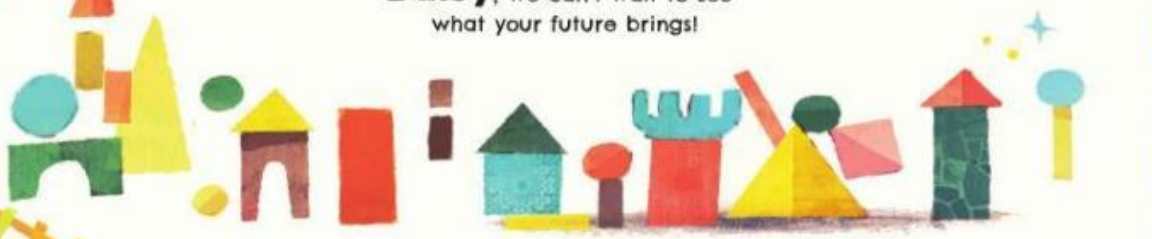

We have known from the beginning,
you will accomplish marvelous things!

Great worlds are built
from tiny blocks—

DAISY'S WORLD

Daisy, we can't wait to see what your future brings!
